Framed in Fire is a gripping mystery novel that follows the story of Lane Winslow, a young woman who finds herself framed for murder. With a killer on her trail and the police closing in, Lane must race against time to clear her name and find the real killer before it's too late.

Lane is a successful businesswoman with a seemingly perfect life. She has a loving husband, a beautiful home, and a promising career. But everything comes crashing down when she is accused of murdering her best friend, Sarah.

Lane is horrified and confused. She knows she didn't kill Sarah, but no one believes her. The police are convinced that she is guilty, and the media is having a field day with the story. Lane is desperate to clear her name, but she doesn't know where to turn.

With the help of her loyal friend, Jack, Lane begins to investigate the murder herself. She soon discovers that Sarah was involved in a dangerous secret that could have gotten her killed. As Lane digs deeper, she realizes that she is not the only one who is in danger.

The killer is determined to silence Lane, and they will stop at nothing to get to her. Lane must use all of her wits and courage to stay one step ahead of the killer and find the truth before it's too late.

Framed in Fire is a fast-paced and suspenseful mystery that will keep you guessing until the very end. Lane Winslow is a complex and relatable character, and the story is full of twists and turns that will keep you on the edge of your seat.

If you are a fan of mystery novels, then you will love Framed in Fire. This is a book that you will not be able to put down until you have finished it.
