Exploring Nature's Embrace

Nature is the beating heart of Oliver's poetry. She deftly captures the essence of the wild, from the towering trees and sparkling rivers to the smallest wildflowers and creatures. Her words paint vivid landscapes that invite us to connect with the beauty and fragility of our surroundings.

“ "When I am among the trees, especially the willows and the honey locust, equally the gnarled old crabapple, the low juniper, I recover myself." ”

“ "Tell me, what is it you plan to do with your one wild and precious life?" ”
