Embark on the Ten Oxherding Pictures Journey

The Oxherding Pictures depict a series of ten stages, each representing a pivotal step in the Zen spiritual journey. Keenan's poems illuminate these stages, providing a deeper understanding of their symbolism and guiding us along the path of self-realization.

1. Seeking the Ox: The quest begins with a yearning for truth and a desire to awaken to our true nature.
2. Finding the Ox: We encounter our inner nature, symbolized by the ox, but struggle to tame its wild and untamed energy.

3. Taming the Ox: Through practice and self-discipline, we learn to control our mind and emotions, bringing the ox under our guidance.
4. Riding the Ox Home: We integrate our awakened nature into our daily lives, living in harmony with our true selves.
5. Returning Home on the Ox's Back: The ox becomes a symbol of our enlightened nature, carrying us effortlessly through the challenges of life.
6. Forgetting the Ox: We transcend the duality of subject and object, realizing that the self and the world are interconnected.
7. Entering the Marketplace with Empty Hands: We return to the world with a heart filled with compassion and wisdom, sharing our insights with others.
8. Passing Through the Marketplace Unnoticed: We live in the world without attachment or ego, recognizing the illusory nature of our possessions and identities.
9. Reaching the Source: We return to the source from which all things arise, experiencing the ultimate unity and emptiness of all existence.
10. In the World But Not of the World: We live in the world while maintaining a connection to the divine, embodying the transformative teachings of the Zen masters.

A Poetic Tapestry of Spiritual Insights

Keenan's poems are a testament to the transformative power of poetry. They weave together vivid imagery, philosophical inquiry, and spiritual depth, creating a tapestry of insights that resonate with the reader's soul. Each poem captures the essence of an Oxherding Picture, revealing its
